PEER REVIEW FAQ

What is Peer Review?

Peer Review is The Vermont Agency of Education's alternate route to licensure. The Peer Review Program is for individuals who have acquired the knowledge and skills needed to meet the Vermont CORE Teaching Standards and Progression Indicators and the competencies and requirements of the endorsement sought through a combination of coursework and experiences rather than through a traditional educator preparation program. Candidates demonstrate proficiency by developing a formal portfolio that is evaluated by a panel of expert educators in the endorsement sought. Successful Peer Review candidates may be recommended for an initial educator license or for adding an endorsement to an existing license.

What is required to be accepted into the Peer Review Program?

In order to be accepted into the Peer Review Program all prospective applicants must hold a minimum of a baccalaureate degree and have attained a 3.0 GPA average. Some endorsements also require a specified advanced degree. Applicants who did not attain a 3.0 GPA average may still be considered for acceptance into the Peer Review program by first passing the Praxis CORE Academic Skills Test.

What do I need to include in a Peer Review application?

You will need to apply for the Peer Review program in our Online System \(ALiS\):

- If you are seeking initial licensure you will need to log on and click "apply for new license" from the menu. Select NO to all the Preliminary Questions. You will then be prompted to select the Alternate Route you are pursuing. Choose Peer Review and complete the application.
- If you are seeking an additional endorsement you will need to log on and click "add new endorsement" from the menu. Select Peer Review as your route and complete the application.

For a Peer Review application to be complete the following must be included as part of the Online application:

- Official* undergraduate and graduate (if applicable) transcripts with the degree and date conferred indicated (these must be sent via mail or electronically to AOE.transcripts@vermont.gov)
- A current resume

Do I have to take Praxis tests prior to submitting a Peer Review Portfolio?

Yes. Both the Praxis Core Academic Skills Test or one of the acceptable alternative exams and the content Praxis II for the endorsement sought (if applicable) must be completed and passed prior to submitting your Peer Review Portfolio. Evidence of these exams must be included in your portfolio as well as having these scores sent to the Agency of Education.

Do I need to student teach?

Regulations state that anyone seeking initial licensure must submit “evidence of at least 13 consecutive weeks of student teaching, or an equivalent learning experience” (General Requirement #3). If you have not completed student teaching but have a substantial amount of supervised experiences working with students in the endorsement area you seek at the PK-12 level, your panel may determine that you have had an “equivalent learning experience.”

How long does it take to go through Peer Review?

The answer to this question depends mainly on how quickly you complete your portfolio and the outcome of the Peer Review Panel’s evaluation of your work. It can take up to two (2) months from the time a portfolio is received for an applicant to be notified as to the outcome of the Peer Review portfolio evaluation. Please keep in mind that March through August is the busiest time for Peer Review and it could take longer to complete the process if you submit a portfolio during these months.

How long do I have to submit my portfolio once it has been determined that I am accepted into Peer Review Program?

You have one year from the date of your acceptance letter to submit your portfolio. If you are unable to submit your portfolio within the year, you will need to apply for an extension to your Peer Review Program acceptance, including paying the Peer Review Application fee.

What if the endorsement competencies change before I submit my Peer Review Portfolio?

If you submit your Portfolio within the 1 year Peer Review Program deadline or by the deadline of your first extension request (2 years from your acceptance into the program) you will be required to show how you have satisfied the endorsement competencies at they existed at the time of your acceptance into the program. If you apply for a second extension, you will be required to show how you have satisfied the current competencies for the endorsement you are seeking, if these competencies have been revised since your initial acceptance.

Is there reciprocity for licenses obtained through Vermont’s Peer Review Program with other states?

This depends upon the state in which you are seeking reciprocity. Some states who participate in the NASDTEC Interstate Reciprocity contract do not recognize licenses obtained through any alternate routes. The best way to find out is to contact the licensing or certification office of the state in which you are seeking licensure.

Does a Vermont license obtained through Peer Review look any different than one obtained by completing an approved program?

No, there is nothing on the license that indicates that the person went through Peer Review as an alternative to a traditional preparation program. However, a review of your transcripts would show that you did not complete an approved educator licensing program.
