

Broadcast: Kids Press Conference with Governor Phil Scott Supplemental Lessons and Resources

Supplemental Lessons

iCivics: Lessons on State Government (Social Studies, 6-12). Various lessons where students can learn about the functioning of state government, the powers of the executive branch, as well as the relationship between state and federal government.

iCivics: The State Governor (Social Studies, 6-12). Students learn about the roles and responsibilities of the governor.

PBS News Hour: Student Reporting Labs (ELA/Social Studies, K-12). From “The Art of Asking Questions” to “Finding Story Ideas”. These resources cover the basics of community journalism.

Scholastic: How to Conduct a Journalistic Interview. One of the hardest skills for a young reporter to master is interviewing. It takes preparation and persistence to conduct a good interview. Follow these steps and learn how to interview like a pro.

Edutopia: How to Help Students Develop Interviewing Skills. Tips for teaching students to conduct great interviews, from the Center for Urban Pedagogy's investigation curriculum.

Supplemental Resources

Seven Days: Meet the 14-Year-Old Running for Vermont Governor. Vermont is one of seven states that does not have an age requirement to run for governor.

Vermont History Explorer: The Green Mountaineer- Government. Students can learn about Vermont government, including where decisions were made before the capital was in Montpelier, and what happened at the first Town Meetings.

Digital Vermont: Governor Collection. Photographs and/or portraits of all Vermont Governors.

Vermont Secretary of State: Veto. Information regarding the governor's use of the veto from 1839-present.

Vermont Secretary of State: Inaugurals and Farewells. “Inaugurals were used to promote a governor's agenda, farewell addresses allowed for more reflection, weighing the expectations of inaugurals against the experience of governing”.

List of Vermont Governors. A list of all Vermont Governors who have left office and all official correspondence.