

Post-Secondary Outcomes Information

This Indicator is related to how IEP students are doing one year after they exited high school. The information is gathered via a telephone survey in which attempts are made to contact every student who exited high school in the prior year. Family members may respond as long as they are knowledgeable about the student. The data from survey is combined with information from the National Student Clearinghouse, which provides data about college enrollments.