INFORMATION FOR APPLICANTS WHO HAVE COMPLETED POST-SECONDARY EDUCATION OUT OF COUNTRY

Thank you for contacting the Vermont Agency of Education's Office of Educator Licensing. You have indicated that you have completed your post-secondary education outside of the United States. Your process begins with these three steps. After you have completed these steps we will be able to determine your licensing route to becoming a Vermont educator.

Step 1

Vermont educator licensing rules require those who have completed their academic preparation outside of the United States to have their credentials evaluated by a credentials evaluation service. Please select one of the following to order a Credentials Report:

Note

Vermont requires two (2) types of foreign transcript analysis:

- General Evaluation, and
- A Course-By-Course Evaluation

You must request both of these analyses. Please request that an official copy of the results be sent from the organization to: Vermont Agency of Education, Office of Educator Licensing, 219 North Main Street

Barre, VT 05641. Next, you must immediately complete Step 2!

Step 2

- Submit a Transcript Review application to the Office of Educator Licensing, requesting a transcript analysis when your Credentials Report is received in our office.
- Indicate the State and organization that is conducting the Credentials Report and the date the review was requested.
- Submit $50.00 (US Funds) for this review, this will be collected as part of the online application process.

If you have followed Step 1 and Step 2, we can begin your review as soon as the report is received. Incomplete requests will be returned to the applicant.

Step 3

Vermont licensing policy also requires that you show study in the following areas. This study may have been included in your college education, U.S. citizenship classes or other forms of study. You must provide evidence of:

- General knowledge of American history and culture.
- Coursework in the education of the exceptional child (special education).

Please contact us at AOE.LicensingInfo@vermont.gov or at (802) 479-1700 if you have any questions.
