CORRESPONDENCE / ANNOUNCEMENTS:

D. Tinney received a letter of concern from the Chair of the Regional Advisory Board for the Stafford Technical Center, James Eckhardt. CTE teachers not passing Praxis. AOE will respond in an email regarding next year's work regarding educator licensure.

PUBLIC COMMENT:

N/A

BOARD MEMBER UPDATES:

Board members shared personal updates.

STAFF REPORT:

We have hired a temp, Walter Earle who is on a Local Standards Board. He is scheduled to start on June 18th to help with the influx of renewals we are expecting. As of last Friday, Chittenden East is the first Standards Board to be fully complete. All of their educator's licenses have been renewed.

The Agency has 6 people who are trained to process renewals. Superintendents will be notified that educators are not licensed after June 30th.

J. Fribush commented how the Agency is turning over applications quickly.

VERMONT LICENSURE PORTFOLIO REPORT:

C. Bedell and D. McGough presented the VLP Annual Report.

D. Tinney asked if there is anything the VSBPE can do to support their work. C. Bedell and D. McGough expressed their interest in all 16 Educator Preparation Programs (EPP) participating in the calibration sessions and also would like a VSBPE member on the PAC Committee to attend.

D. McGough shared that EPIC is a 501c3 member organization, made up of professors and staff members of EPP's. EPIC currently manages the actual text of the VLP and is happy to continue to manage. EPIC work is used to support the VT Licensure Portfolio.

COMMITTEE REPORTS AND MOTIONS:

R. Reardon moved that the VSBPE accept recommendations and revisions in the VLP as substantiated in the EPIC report dated June 5 and presented on the same day. The VSBPE will encourage each EPP to use the current VLP as amended and will support their efforts to collect data from EPPs that will allow EPIC to continue with reliability and validity studies.

Seconded by J. Fribush.

Motion approved.

R. Reardon moved that the VSPBE accept proposed ROPA review team members for St. Michael's College (SMC) for ROPA Review in Fall 2018. Seconded by H. Lanthier.
Motion approved.

H. Lanthier moved that the VSBPE accept the proposed ROPA Review team members for review of SMC Early Childhood Education program scheduled for October 2018. Seconded by Jennifer.
Motion approved with one abstention.

R. Reardon moved that at this time the VSBPE does not accept the College of St. Joseph (CSJ) ROPA report from the ROPA review team, and that the VSBPE grant conditional approval to CSJ until August 1, 2018 for recommendation of licensure. At that time, they must demonstrate they are in a position structurally to support their Educator Preparation Program moving forward. Will review status of the program at the August meeting.
Seconded by J. Fribush.
Motion approved.

R. Reardon moved that the VSBPE accept Vermont Technical College's (VTC) two year report and grants continuing approval until next ROPA review in 2023. Include questions from Office's review in report to be answered at next report due in May of next year.
Seconded by Helen.
Motion approved.

R. Baker moved that the Vermont Standards Board for Professional Educators adopts the revised document, A Vision for Teaching Leading, and Learning – Core Teaching and Leadership Standards for Vermont Educators and that the revised document continue to serve as a resource for educators, leaders, districts, professional organizations, teacher education programs, and others.
Seconded by C. Cole.
