RE: FY24 Tuition Rate

Dear Ms. Fox & Ms. Pettengill,

This letter is to officially notify The Arlington School's administration that the following tuition rates have been approved for the 2023 – 2024 school year, by the Agency of Education's Rate Setting Committee, as per Vermont State Board Rule 2232. Additionally, this letter serves as an assurance, that the head of school, confirms and agrees that:

- There is no duplication of costs, in any cost category, on the tuition rate application
- Off-setting revenues have been accurately reported, and the school may be required to provide financial verification of reporting at the discretion of the Secretary of Education or the State Board of Education
- The Head of School confirms if The Arlington School has any additional businesses owned and operated by owners of the school, they are wholly separate operationally, financially and employ separate staff.

The following maximum rate is in effect as of July 1, 2023 and based upon full student enrollment. Additionally, the approved rate is a maximum rate, that must not be construed as a base tuition rate during either tuition or excess cost negotiations with an LEA. Independent schools must report annual off-setting revenues in future tuition rate applications, regardless of the source of funds, including extended COVID-19 program support funding.

Maximum Medicaid and Non-Medicaid Eligible Student Tuition Rate, FY24: $50,566.00
Tuition rate includes embedded clinical services.

In accordance with SBE Rule 2231.1, The Arlington School's administration is required to enter into a written agreement with the sending responsible LEA which outlines costs for each student's attendance, detailing any services required by a student's IEP and are not included in the tuition. In addition, SOAR Learning Center is required to include, in a written agreement, the division of responsibility for the performance of non-instructional services per Rule 2231.2, including compliance with special education procedural requirements.

Finally, as per State Board of Education Rule 2232(k) The Arlington School's administration has the right to appeal the Rate Setting Committee's decision. There are two levels of review and opportunities for submitting an appeal. The final tuition rate can be appealed to the Secretary of Education. If after the Secretary's review, school administrators remain in disagreement with the AOE, The Arlington School can appeal directly to the State Board of Education. All appeals are to be submitted, in writing, directly to either the Secretary's Office or to the State Board of Education. If you have any additional questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Re: Official Independent School Tuition Rate, FY20

Dear Mr. Murphy, Ms. Grote & Ms. Batten,

The Independent School Team, on behalf of the Agency of Education, would like to thank you for your collaboration throughout the FY20 tuition rate setting process.

This letter is to officially notify Brookhaven Learning Center that the following tuition rate has been approved for the 2019 – 2020 school year, by the Agency of Education's Rate Setting Committee, as per Vermont State Board Rule 2228.8.

The following maximum rate is in effect as of January 31, 2020 and based upon 90% student capacity. Additionally, the approved rate is a maximum rate, that must not be construed as a base tuition rate during negotiations with an LEA/school. Independent schools who receive Medicaid funding must still report matching and all other annual revenues in future tuition rate applications.

FY20 Maximum Tuition Rate:

Brookhaven Learning Center: $42,140.39

In accordance with SBE Rule 2228.4, Brookhaven is required to enter into a written agreement with the sending responsible agency/school which outlines costs for each student's attendance, detailing any services required by a student's IEP and are not included in the tuition. In addition, Brookhaven Learning Center is required to include in a written agreement the division of responsibility for the performance of non-instructional service, including compliance with special education procedural requirements.

Finally, as per State Board of Education Rule 2228.8 Brookhaven's administration has the right to appeal the Rate Setting Committee's decision. Additionally, there are two levels of review and opportunities for submitting an appeal. The final tuition rate can be appealed to the Secretary of Education. If after the Secretary's review, school administrators remain in disagreement with the AOE, Brookhaven Learning Center can appeal directly to the State Board of Education. All appeals are to be submitted, in writing, directly to either the Secretary's Office or to the State Board of Education.

RE: FY24 Special Education Tuition Rate - Guided Studies Program

Dear Ms. Howell and Ms. Lyons,

This letter is to officially notify St. Johnsbury Academy that the following special education tuition rate, for Guided Studies program, has been approved for the 2023 – 2024 school year, by the Agency of Education's Rate Setting Committee, as per Vermont State Board Rule 2225. Additionally, this letter serves as an assurance, that the head of school, confirms and agrees that:

- There is no duplication of costs, in any cost category, on the tuition rate application
- Off-setting revenues have been accurately reported, and the school may be required to provide financial verification of reporting at the discretion of the Secretary of Education or the State Board of Education

The following maximum rate is in effect as of September 1, 2023 and based upon reported student enrollment of the Guided Studies program. Additionally, the approved rate is a maximum rate, that must not be construed as a base tuition rate during either tuition or excess cost negotiations with an LEA or school. Independent schools must report annual off-setting revenues in future tuition rate applications regardless of the source of funds.

Maximum Rate FY24: $10,152.16

Tuition rate includes student aides support services

In accordance with SBE Rule 2231.1, St. Johnsbury Academy is required to enter into a written agreement with the sending responsible agency/school which outlines costs for each student's attendance, detailing any services required by a student's IEP and are not included in the tuition.
