

Media Advisory: Governor's Statewide School Safety Training Conference

For Immediate Release

Contact: Rob Evans at revans@margolishealy.com

BARRE, Vt. – The Agency of Education and the Department of Public Safety will host an all-day conference for public and independent schools focused on preventing school violence from 8:15 a.m. until 4 p.m. on December 8, 2016 at Vermont Technical College (Judd Hall) in Randolph, VT.

More than 130 school executive leaders, members of Vermont's first response community, mental health providers and school crisis planning team members will gather for the day-long behavioral assessment training. Those attending will receive a certificate of completion from SIGMA Threat Management Associates, a national thought leader in assessing school threat/risk-based behaviors that can potentially have a negative impact on schools.

Secretary of Education Rebecca Holcombe and Director of Division of Emergency Management and Homeland Security Christopher Herrick will open the conference at 9 a.m.

Connect with the Vermont Agency of Education on Twitter, Facebook, and YouTube.

###