

In appreciation and admiration of the many contributions of

Stacy Weinberger

The Vermont State Board of Education

Resolves that

WHEREAS, Stacy Weinberger has faithfully and diligently served as a distinguished member of this board from 2013 to 2019, six of the board's most demanding and consequential years, and

WHEREAS, she is a committed and steadfast advocate for all children and particularly our youngest children, as demonstrated by her leadership of the King Street Early Education program, Co-director of the Bellwether School and work with Building Bright Futures, and

WHEREAS, she is as an advocate for integrating the arts as a whole and full measure of children's education, and for the educational value of play and hands-on experience, and

WHEREAS, she has been a champion of multi-cultural diversity and equity throughout her more than twenty-year educational career, and

WHEREAS, she is raising two daughters, Li Lin and Ada, with the same values and commitment to learning that she has brought to the field of education, and

WHEREAS, in demanding times such as school district consolidation she shouldered the burdens while also lifting the board with her enthusiastic and effervescent personality,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that

The Vermont State Board of Education acknowledges, with great appreciation and gratitude, her distinguished work as a state board member, a teacher, a parent and a colleague, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT,

We are confident and assured that her greatest contributions will be manifest through the unfolding lives of the many children she has influenced.

Krista Huling, Chair

Vermont State Board of Education

Presented this sixteenth day of January, 2019