

Vermont State Board of Education Resolution of Appreciation for Sabina Brochu

WHEREAS, Sabina Brochu has served with distinction on the State Board of Education from August 2019 through June 2021 and provided a confident, well-informed voice and fresh perspective; and

WHEREAS, Sabina has drawn from her experiences as a leader at Champlain Valley Union (CVU) High School. Balancing the demands of school, athletics, State Board of Education meetings, both in person and virtual, press conferences with the Governor, VPR call-ins, and a global pandemic; and

WHEREAS, Sabina has informed the State Board of Education with monthly updates highlighting important issues in education and the impact on students during this extraordinary time. Sabina took on the effort to reach out to her peers across the state; and

WHEREAS, Sabina shared her opinions, with knowledge, clarity, and authority; and

WHEREAS, Sabina was a vital member of the State Board of Education, not just a student voice, but a voice for all Vermont students. While students have only two years with the State Board of Education, and only one year as a voting member, Sabina's years were full of insight and wisdom, enriching fellow board members and informing decision-making throughout her time; and

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the State Board of Education bestows its gratitude and commendations to Sabina Brochu. We thank her for her service and commitment to improving Vermont education for all students. Furthermore, we wish her continued success in her future endeavors and hope that she will remain connected with our work, as she embarks on her Senior year at CVU.
